Using your graphic organizer and Venn Diagram, create a mini-poster that completes the simile "War is like..." Include your statement across the top, have at least one visual, and 3 key quotes from the article to support your simile.

War is like a fun house mirror...

"But war twists and shapes the landmarks by which we navigate our lives..."

War makes "...everything seem all wrong and just right, in a way that makes perfect sense."

"Even in its quiet moments, war is brighter, louder, brasher, more fun, more tragic, more wasteful. More. More of everything."

Mockenhaupt writes that war can be funny, ridiculous, scary, beautiful, terrible, and destructive. It can make a person feel like part of a collective, euphoric, filled with fear, joyous, etc...
